

Bonnie Kennerson Becomes Bride of Donald Pniewski

Bonnie Jean Kennerson chose a traditional white satin gown with train and a fingertip length veil when she became the bride of Donald J. Pniewski of Detroit, Mich., Sept. 25 in Nativity Catholic church.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Kennerson, of 242nd St., Walteria; carried a bouquet of white carnations and streamers centered with a large purple orchid. She chose her aunt, Mrs. Agnes Burnett of Hawthorne, as her matron of honor. Bridesmaids were the bridegroom's sister, Clara, and the bride's cousin, Margery Muls.

Best man was George Spatek of Encino, and ushers were Joe Freeland of Walteria, and John Burnett. The Rev. Fr. Robert A. Gara performed the ceremony. Out-of-town guests were the bridegroom's mother and sister from Detroit. A reception for over 100 guests was held at the parish house. The couple cut a four-tiered wedding cake placed on a table decorated in pale pink and ivory leaves. The bridegroom was in the Marines until last February. The couple will live in San Pedro.

Harbor City PTA Active

Members of Harbor City PTA who attended the Lomita-San Pedro Council meeting recently at the 15th Street School in San Pedro were: Mmes. R. E. Griffin, Jack B. Moore, James Triffon, D. G. Creek, Leland VanBuren, Carl Gregory, George Weeks, Charles Hilzer, and Mrs. Avls Creech, principal of Harbor City School.

Mrs. James Triffon, ways and means chairman, announced that the Harbor City PTA rummage sale held in the House of Rummage recently, made $60. The proceeds from this go to the welfare fund. Members assisting were Mmes. Stephen Silko, James R. Alexander, Leland VanBuren, Ray Groover, Carl Gregory, Charles Hilzer, and James Triffon.

Over 53 mothers attended the room mother's tea held Thursday in the Harbor City School auditorium. Mrs. John Gilgren, room mother chairman, outlined the parties for the year. Mrs. James Triffon gave a report on the Halloween Carnival plans. Refreshments were served by members of the board with Mrs. G. S. Andreotti in charge.

Mrs. Robert Kinsey and Mrs. Glen Deatherage are the originators of the Harbor City School membership poster for PTA this year, featuring rocket ships shooting for the moon through a glittering starry blue sky. Mrs. White's B-1 class and Miss Williams' B-3 class were the first to reach 100 per cent membership.

Council Meeting

A skit stressing Community Chest needs was given by students at the first meeting of the Gateway Council held at the San Pedro High School. During the meeting Proposition 2 was discussed and members were urged to vote for the measure.

10th District Welfare Funds Swelled by PTA Unit Drives

A record attendance of 116 parents and teachers was set at the first association meeting of the 186th St. school PTA, which was held recently. The nursery cared for 65 children during the meeting.

A budget of $594.75 was adopted by the members. Ten per cent of all money-making projects and 10 per cent of the membership dues will also be sent to 10th District for child welfare.

Mrs. Mildred Fletcher, principal, introduced the teachers, and Mrs. A. B. Pond, president, introduced the executive board to the members of the association. Following the community singing, which was led by Mrs. Mary Ridenour and Robert Lyons, who are teachers at the 186th St. School, several members participated in a skit, "Dragnet." They were Mmes. J. T. Evans Jr., W. S. Stewart, Richard Brown, James McMillan, Raymond Abernathy, Guy DeMontigny, Philip Donaher, Robert Parmer, and Miss Evelyn Buckley, a teacher.

Hostesses for the day were Mmes. R. L. Fullilove, Leroy Shore, Earl Beck, David Wood, Claud Hill, and Morris Daniels. Honorary hosts and hostesses were Mrs. Irah Brunson, Mrs. Robert Lyons, Richard Brown, and Deloy Stromme, sixth grade teachers.

Mrs. Samuel Dow, 10th District achievement evaluation chairman, was a special guest. The executive board meeting will be held Wednesday, at 7:30 p. m., at the home of Mrs. Ed. Ludwig, 2003 Apple Ave.

PTA SHOWS MOVIES

The first movie to be shown by the El Nido PTA, as ways and means project, was "Moonlight Bay," with Doris Day and Gordon MacRae.

On Nov. 13, they will show "Come to the Stables," with Loretta Young and Celeste Holm. These are shown at the school, with tickets at 25 cents for children, and 35 cents for adults.

Local Church Women Note World Day

Torrance church women are making plans to meet together on Friday, Nov. 6, to observe World Community Day. The meeting will be held at the Central Evangelical United Brethren Church, 1543 Marcelina Ave. A business session of the United Church Women, sponsors for the day, will be held at 10 a. m. and will be led by Mrs. Arthur G. Solomon, president of the interdenominational association. At 11:45 the group will recess for a sack lunch, with coffee served by the women of the hostess church.

Principal event of the day will be the afternoon program scheduled for 1 p. m., to be led by Mrs. H. F. Moseley, president of the women's society of the First Christian Church. She is planning for music and a devotional service before the special speaker, Mrs. John L. Taylor. Mrs. Taylor will report on a woman's view of the World Council of Churches, held in Evanston, Ill., which she attended with her husband, pastor of the First Methodist Church.

World Community Day is to be observed by church women the world over. The theme this year is "Let the Children Come." Offerings will go toward the Christian Women's Program for Lasting Peace. In addition to money, donations of warm clothing, fabrics, blankets and household linens, are to be sent to homeless children everywhere, and to refugees from wars and disaster areas the world over.

Women of all churches in the Torrance area are invited to attend this special meeting.

Sewing Circle Party

The Royal Neighbors Sewing Circle will hold a card party at the Woman's clubhouse, 1422 Encracia Ave., on Oct. 19, at 8 p. m. There will be prizes and refreshments, with Mrs. Ernest M. Hill acting as chairman.

School Crossing Signals for North Torrance School Urged

Mrs. Frances Stoeckle reported on the progress being made in securing a stop sign for children crossing the 174th and Casimir intersection to the executive board of the North Torrance Elementary PTA at their recent meeting.

A committee including Dr. J. Henrich Hull, superintendent of schools, have made the contacts with the proper officials, and the State Division of Highways has made a survey to see if the crossing in question has enough pedestrians and traffic to warrant a stop sign or light. A report on this survey is expected soon. The program and proposed budget were read to the board for discussion, with the board recommending approval of both to the association. Three new chairmen were ra-
